COMMENTS – Bottom Road

Kenny Hale stated that there were several people present that asked to speak about the Bottom Road project. Mr. Hale stated that he had spoken with several people via phone and he wanted to let people know that the county is also looking at other properties that are not in the flood plain. Mr. Hale stated that he did not like that the project is planned for the flood plain and on a narrow road.

Debbie Harker, Morgan County resident, stated that they purchased property with the understanding that the two acres was under eminent domain and that no structures would be built because the property is in a flood plain. They have a temporary entrance to the property that will change once the road is straightened. They were told by the former highway department superintendent that there was no reason to change it until the road came through. They are concerned that this structure would be in their front yard and the narrow road cannot handle the truck traffic. The neighborhood has put together a petition expressing their concerns and stating that they are opposed to any structure going on this property. Kenny Hale asked that they turn in the petition.

Chase Harker, Morgan County resident, stated that the county took control of the property in 2023 with the reasoning that the sharp turns in the road and drainage needed improvements for safety reasons. Mr. Harker stated that the only way to access the property is through the county's property because of a large hill with a steep incline. Large equipment has been parked, dirt has been hauled in, and deer carcasses have been dumped on the county property. It continues to flood and is an eyesore for the neighborhood. It is concerning to Mr. Harker that the county is considering an industrial use for a residential area. IF the project were to move forward, it would devalue the land, pose a safety risk to children, cause noise and light pollution, and make the road dangerous. Mr. Harker asked that they reconsider.

Brent Milhon, Morgan County resident, stated that he would work with the county to utilize the current facility. DNR could step in. Mr. Milhon stated that the county has 12 acres next to the current highway garage. Kenny Hale noted that this property is in the floodway.

LuMar Griggs, Morgan County resident, stated that she has tried to drive through when the road is flooded, and won't do it again. Ms. Griggs asked what is classified as a government building and how far the building would be from the road. Mr. Hale stated that it would depend on the engineering and restrictions. Ms. Griggs asked if they still plan on straighten the road. Mr. Hale stated that they haven't gotten that far yet, it still might happen if they can find another location. Ms. Griggs stated she would love to see the curves straightened and mentioned her concern with salt runoff for wildlife.

Haley Summers, Morgan County resident, stated that it is a quiet area and a structure would cause visibility issues on the corner and she is concerned about school buses and emergency vehicles on the road as well as salt runoff.

Bonnie Lamp, Morgan County resident, stated that she likes the area because there isn't much traffic and she would like the curves straightened and the salt barn project moved to another area if possible.

Bryan Collier noted that straightening the road wasn't as pressing once the previous owner's telephone poles, concrete and other obstacles were removed from the corner.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE COUNTY

Bryan Collier complimented the Morgan County Highway Department and emergency personnel that battled the storm. Mr. Collier wanted to point out to the social media naysayers that he measured 11.2" of snow in his yard. He looked up the information of the January 5, 1978 "blizzard" and the benchmark was 10.3 inches. They might not have gotten the snow before or as much after, but Mr. Collier stated that the crews did a phenomenal job. Mr. Collier also thanked the citizens that stayed off the roads so crews could clear the roads.

Eddie Fisher wanted to assure the residents that the Highway Department did their best. Crews came together and worked over 30 hours. Mr. Fisher hoped that people could see that the crews worked together and did their best. There is a process of putting material on the ground and letting it set; if they removed it right after they put it down, it wouldn't melt until summer. The average route is 40 to 50 miles. If they failed, it wasn't because they didn't try. There were only four accidents on county roads.

Bill Mitchell stated that he worked the blizzard of '78 and the current Highway Department is a godsend compared to the five trucks and three pickups they had then.

ADJOURNMENT

Bryan Collier made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Motion seconded by Kenny Hale. Motion carried 3-0.
